General Local News.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 4, 1878.

Rev. T. E. Richey and wife, of Princeton, Ky., arrived in Hartford Monday evening, and will remain several days visiting the families of John P. Barrett, J. L. Collins, and the host of warm friends made while a citizen of this place some ten years since. Mr. Richey has almost a national reputation as a brilliant and successful temperance advocate, and his exertions in the cause has met with a hearty support, as evinced in the almost unprecedented circulation of his paper as a temperance journal, spreading the "good news of glad tidings" over the land, and giving new strength and courage to the helpless unfortunate—scattering the gloom of winter from his heart and planting in its stead a spring of perpetual flowers and fragrant sunbeams of hope. We wish him a success beyond his most sanguine anticipations, and hope his stay among us will be of that pleasant nature that will induce him and his accomplished wife to renew it often.

With pleasure we acknowledge the receipt of a bouquet from a valued friend, Mrs. W. S. Powell, of Princeton. The selection and arrangement of the beautiful and rare flowers evinces an artistic taste that only the cultivated mind is capable of conceiving and accomplishing, and the sweet memories revived by them are of that nature to make the mind happy in the reverie of the past and the bright hope of the future. Such delicate testimonial of friendship are treasures of the heart that reflect the bright colors long after the natural flowers have faded and their reality lost amid the gloom of the past.

Mr. Henry McHenry, son of Hon. H. D. McHenry, of this place, left Monday evening for Louisville, where he will remain for ten months, attending school. George Quinn, Esq. of Sebree City, Webster county, spent several days in town, this last week. Mr. Quinn is a school teacher, and has come to this county with the view of getting a school. He comes to our midst with good references as a gentleman and teacher.

Our sanctuary was visited last Monday by a great many of the good people of the county, among the number that called was our old friend, Jerry Williams, Sr. "Uncle" Jerry is one of the best citizens of the county.

Drunk Again.

Oh, what a word to the wife and mother! Dan B. Austin, used to be in moderate circumstances. He had stock and property enough around him to keep him and his family comfortable. How is it now? A poor delicate wife and six little children at home (one of them sick) without the luxuries, or even plain comforts of life; no preparation to preserve or protect them from the winter's chill blast; his poor old mother, her head silvered over with the frost of time, working and slaving herself away for a mere pittance to live on and dress herself, and he a stout, able-bodied man in jail for drunkenness! My God, what a picture! He was in town drunk on the 25th of May, and was placed in jail. He got out and was let off early and promised to reform; but last Monday the same thing was repeated. His horse, without a keeper, strayed off, and the only one, too, he has, his mother cried for two days over his conduct when he was in jail before, but that did not keep him straight; he gave way to his lascivious appetite again. She followed him to the jail and begged for him to the last. The hot tears of sorrow and remorse, the sobs welling up and the efforts to choke them down when visiting us and relating her sad story, was enough to have elicited sympathy from a demon, much less a human. She says her boy must be saved. It is her boy, and no one under the shining sun must ever let him have liquor again. She calls down the vengeance of God and prays that the wildest furies of an ETERNAL HELL may be the lot of him who dares to disobey this request. She has given due notice, which we publish elsewhere, and it would be best for our readers who are engaged in retailing liquor to read it and grant her request. She is earnest.

To Retail Liquor Dealers, the World Over.

By virtue of an act of the last Legislature of Kentucky, approved March 6, 1878, notice is hereby given to all the liquor sellers, liquor dealers and to every body else under the canopy of heaven, not to give, loan, sell, swap, barter, trade or let Daniel B. Austin of the county of Ohio, State of Kentucky, in any way shape, manner or form, have any spirituous or malt liquor wine beer or any other drink by any other name known, that is in the least intoxicating. The person so offending, will be punished for each and every offense to the fullest extent allowed by law. May the direst punishments, the most fearful pestilence, the darkest gloom of adversity be meted out to those who disregard this notice. Dan B. Austin is an incubate.

Mrs. MINNIE AUSTIN, Mother of Dan B. Austin.

Important to Everybody.

Z. A. Rosenberg, of the firm of L. Rosenberg & Bro., left last Saturday for Cincinnati, and other Eastern cities, for the purpose of buying a mammoth stock of Fall and Winter goods. He will purchase the largest stock of goods the firm have ever brought to this market. Their stock will consist of a full line of Dress goods, Clothing, Hats and Caps, Boots, Shoes and Gaiters, Cloaks, Shawls, Underwear, Flannels, and Fancy goods of every description, and in fact, all kinds of goods kept in a dry goods house, and all of the latest styles, will be purchased. They will begin to receive one stock this week. The ladies are especially invited to call and examine their stock. No trouble, but a pleasure to them to exhibit their goods. Come to see us, everybody.

Burglars Nabbed.

Some weeks ago Mr. W. G. Duncan's store at McHenry, was robbed of about $500, and a few articles, an account of which was given in the Herald at the time. Mr. Duncan has been quite active in ferreting out the robbers. Suspicion pointed to Thos. Rock, John Hines and Sanford Taylor, all of color, who left that vicinity a few days after, and went to Richmond mines, Muhlenberg county. They were arrested, and Hines and Taylor were after an examination, discharged, and Rock held over and lodged in jail. Mr. Duncan went over to Rock's house and got some of the money and things, and got a confession from members of Rock's family. He then came back with this, and visited Rock, who made a confession, saying that he stood guard while Alfonso Miller, of color, went in and got the money. Miller was arrested last Friday, and lodged in jail, and on Monday he was examined and acquitted, Rock failing to swear as he said he would.

School Announcements.

Mr. R. Campbell will commence the public school at Rosine, on Monday next. Scholars outside the school district and school age, will be admitted on reasonable terms. Mr. Campbell is a thorough scholar, and his reputation for imparting knowledge to pupils, is as good as any teacher in the county.

Large For His Age.

Mr. J. F. Collins bought of Thomas C. Bender, a short horn bull, 17 months old, that weighed 1,042 pounds, for which he paid $40. The bull, "Young Burke," is a calf of A. G. Brown's fine bull, and is out of a cow that was a calf of "Burnie," Calvin Warden's fine bull.

There will be a basket dinner at Liberty church on the 4th Sunday in this month, which will be Bro. Cook's last appointment. Rev. R. D. Bennett will be in attendance also.

Mrs. Inez Griffin is in Rockport this week visiting her sister Mrs. M. J. Rios.

THE EFFECT OF ADVERTISING.

As long as I have reason on the brain; And ever while my head is level; Dog, both nature and civil; In a batch may go together; Where there is much better weather; Why first people think it silly; That I should call my dog Billy; For that is the way that I do; Another one requires whether; The spots are separate or not together; Another writes me, "Do not fail; To send me his true length of tail;" And one, of reason quite bereft; Would know the very day he left; Why, the silly, how do I know; When I never saw him go; And, his hither by many tricks; That he's up to his ears with his brothers; Thus always with their slanders; Trying to turn things to politics; Now, to stop all questions, please explain; My dog is safe at home again; And would say, could he talk in rhyme; He'd never leave home again on electric time; H. D. TAYLOR.

M. F. Hines has fresh meats on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings for sale, for cash only. Be sure and bring your change.

We were the recipient last Tuesday of a basket of delicious peaches. They were presented us by our friend and patron, Sanford Tichenor, Esq. He also brought us a leaf of his tobacco which is very large, measuring 26 by 39 inches. Mr. Tichenor is a good farmer.

Go at once to D. F. Tracy's and buy your new buggies for the fair, cheap for cash.

My friends from the country will do me a great favor, and probably benefit themselves, by coming in when they next come to town and examining my complete stock of staple and fancy Groceries and the very reasonable prices I am selling them at. M. F. HINES.

Mr. Julius C. Bean, proprietor of the Sulphur Springs hotel, is lying quiet with typhoid fever and his recovery is thought by his physician to be very doubtful.

Mr. Bean is an estimable gentleman, a good citizen, and that community could not well afford to lose him from their midst.

Miss Mary Taylor, of this place, left last Monday to attend school at Shelbyville.

Miss Lizette Walker, daughter of Hon. E. D. Walker, left Monday for Glendale, where she will remain for ten months attending Lyndland Institute.

For the next thirty days I will sell Furniture to suit the purchaser, regardless of cost.

W. C. MORTON.

Married at the residence of Peter Whittinghill, in the Eastern part of Ohio county, on Thursday, August 29, 1878.

John Walker to Miss Helen Whittinghill. The bride is one of the most beautiful young ladies we have ever known. We wish them a life of unalloyed happiness.

Married at the residence of John Q. Kerby, near Sulphur Springs, Ohio county, on Thursday, August 28, 1878, by the Rev. Joseph Bennett, Mr. Wm. Mitchell to Miss Bettie Kerby.

"Oh! fair and flowery be their path; The skies all brightly above them; And brighter every coming day; To them and those that love them."

Dan B. Austin was tried yesterday before Judge W. H. Cummins, and fined $5 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and in default of payment, the Marshal is ordered to have him work it out on the street.

Miss Emma Phillips, daughter of our Sheriff, left yesterday for Hopkinsville to attend Bethel College.

King's new Livestock Stable has one of the neatest signs we have seen in a long time. It was written up by those excellent artists, Hill & Davis.

Bread Stuff.

Go to W. H. Moore's steam mill, in Hartford, and get all the corn-meal, flour, bran, shorts &c., you may need. He has a full supply, of good quality and at reasonable prices.

W. F. Gregory closed his term as County Judge last Monday by administering the oath to his successor, Ben. Newton. The Judge has made a good officer, and leaves the records of the office in a very satisfactory condition. He is located in the office near the Arnold House, opposite the north side of the court-house, where he will devote his time to the practice of law.

Save your money until Geo. A. Platt's new groceries arrives, and buy fresh goods at low prices.

Grand Opening at the Trade Palace.

The grand transformation scene still goes on at the Trade Palace. Every day new arrivals of goods are opened and added to the goods already received. Mr. E. Small is buying, in the eastern cities, and shipping daily. The stock of ladies Dress Goods is the nearest, nicest and most varied of any stock ever brought to this market. The new styles of prints at 5 cents a yard, and every grade of Dress Goods from that up to fine Cashmeres and Silks, at remarkably low prices. A lot of Extra Woolen Skirts that will please the ladies better than anything they have ever seen in Hartford. The ladies' Cloaks are unsurpassed in style and quality. The Ribbons, Ruchings, and fancy goods are unexcelled in quantity, quality and variety by any house in the Green River country. Nice side-lacing gaiters for the ladies at only $1.25.

Underwear for ladies, gentlemen and youths.

The stock of Clothing at the Trade Palace is the largest Mr. Small has ever brought on yet.

Anything found in any retail dry goods store house in this part of the world, can be found at the Trade Palace.

The ladies are invited to come at once and see the grand display. Everything being sold at a very small profit. The Fair is coming on and the ladies have no time to lose to get their new dresses and get ready for it. Mr. Small has his new goods in time for you.

Will You Walk into my Parlor and the Spider to the parrow.

Sunday morning last, Mr. Shaffer invited several gentlemen to his yard to see a very remarkable sight, a large spider, the body of which was fully one inch long, with legs equally formidable in size and length, and a common sized sparrow that had been captured by the spider, hanging from the top of the web with its wings, legs and body tied fast so as to prevent its moving. The sparrow was released and the spider placed in a glass jar, and is now among the curiosities in our office. This is a vicious and venomous looking spider.

"There's Many a Slip," Etc.

Mr. Ike Sweet and Mrs. Anderson (a grass widow), of Elizabethtown, were engaged to become "desh of one flesh and bone of one bone," and last Thursday night was the appointed time. The license was procured, the guests all invited and assembled, the preacher engaged but the bride gentleman did not put in an appearance. When last seen he was leaving town, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. We have as yet heard of no reason for his acting thus. His failure to be on time still prevents Mrs. A. from being "sweet," and has probably caused her to be a little sour.

Largest Yet.

Mr. Jerry Williams, of this county, has two cowboys ewes that he got from P. M. Hocker last fall, one of which has twin lambs this season weighing now 110 and 125 respectively, and the other has one lamb that weighs 115 pounds. Pretty large lambs those.

Great bargains in groceries for the next 30 days, at W. C. MORTON'S.

An Unhappy Occurrence.

We regret to chronicle a difficulty on last Monday between W. T. King, of the Hartford House, and J. F. Yager, lively stock keeper in this town. We have not learned the particulars of the trouble and will not speculate about it. The court will sift the matter Thursday. Mr. Yager is badly, though we hope not seriously hurt. Mr. King is but slightly hurt.

Miss Sallie Peyton has been engaged to teach the school at Alexandria school house, on the Owensboro road, two miles north-west of Hartford. Miss Sallie is an accomplished lady, a thorough scholar, and a teacher of considerable experience. Young ladies desiring a good teacher, could not find one anywhere better capacitated to teach them. Boarding in the neighborhood can be secured at low rates.

Capt. Sam. K. Cox is treating the Clerk's office to a new dress of paint.

Excessive Heat.

And unwholesome diet at this season of the year may speedily carry you to the grave. Parker's Ginger Tonic, by its corrective action on the entire digestive apparatus, will not only satisfactorily cure Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Infantum, Colic, Cramps, Spasms, etc., but will prevent those dangerous disorders from attacking the system. It may save your life, and should always be kept in the house. This pleasant remedy is unequalled for teething children or nursing mothers. Possessing many additional virtues of other valuable roots, it is far superior to Essences of Ginger, without their constipating effects, and while more invigorating than liquors never intoxicates nor creates any desire for stimulants. It cures Dyspepsia and its varied symptoms of Headache, Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Wakefulness, Sour Stomach, Constipation, Liver Disorders, Stuffed Tongue, Low Spirits, Neuralgia and Rheumatic Pains, enables you to enjoy the fruits and vegetables of the season without fear, and gives comfort after a hearty meal. Buy a $1 bottle of your druggist, and test its merits. Z. WAYNE GRUBBS, Druggist, 29-cow

The following note was picked up on the street yesterday, can be had by calling at this office.

Dear Jost: Please come home. We need you very much, as several accidents have befallen us. John sprained his ankle badly, and Sarah's frosted feet are troubling her. My corns are increasing in number and severity, and the knots on our mule's back are growing larger. Uncle Dick is laid up with the rheumatism, so do come home, and bring a bottle of Cassell's "Lightning Liniment," which is successfully used by all of our neighbors, for each of the above afflictions. You can buy it at any drug store for 50 cents a bottle.
